

A Word of Prophecy...

Prophetic Word:

10/16/22

I sense in the realm of the spirit a proliferation of vile, evil, satanic acts– egregious, heinous acts of murder. Serial killers, murderers. Some specifically targeting demographics of people race, religion, orientation, of all types.

People will be in major fear for their lives and well being. I see and hear people on the news saying this is such a shock because things like this don't happen in our neighborhood(s) and cities. There will be great news coverage concerning these attacks.

Searching for greater security.

The security industry will benefit greatly from these events. Home security systems, locks, car alarms. Security firms for business.

Acts of robbery, and home invasions. Sodomy and sexual assaults. Mass Shootings in several public places and schools will shake the nations.

These things will surely happen. But the saints of God must be prepared for the assault in the realm if the spirit to combat the acts.

Some people will be spared and others will happen. The saints must prayer to safe lives. Lives are dependent on the prayers, actions, and assignments of the saints.

Great revival– there will be great numbers of people turning to God. Tent revivals and salvation will be demonstrated in great number. Salvation, healing, deliverance, signs, wonders and miracles will take place in great number. Greater work shall you do.

The arms of Christ must be strong and ready to work.

A great reverence and purging will come to the house of God. Reverential awe and fear came upon the church. You will begin to hear of many people dropping dead in the church: in the pulpits, at the alters in the pews at the door. For their lack of reverence for holy things. Some people will do because God wants to raise them and others will die because this is the penalty for their sins.

This will be a testament of the reverential fear falling upon the congregations. People will love God and come to him in spirit and truth. The truth of the lord will reign again.

Churches will be filled once again. Some will come out of fear and others will come because they have a longing and have tried everything else now they will seek out a place worship.

Woe unto the prophets that speak on behalf of God and have not rested in his counsel. Their heads be cut off. Their necks be broken for distorting the glory of God. Those prophets who have not been sent or beguiling God will choke on their words.

Literally as they are speaking, they will choke.

Get ready to see people return unto God. Like never before. There will be mass healings and deliverances. The mouth of the Lord has spoken it.
